

Emergency Decontamination Participant Worksheet

1. Within the triage stage, which were you: minor, immediate (breathing or not), delayed or deceased?

2. As a patient, briefly describe your Decon experience. How did you feel as a patient? Were you reassured? Did you feel chaos?

3. Which positions/roles during the functional exercise did you find interesting and would like to learn more about or pursue?

Silicon Valley Career Technical Education Public Safety

4. Which of the decontamination equipment did you see in use? How were they used?

- | | | | |
|---|---|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Brushes | <input type="checkbox"/> Disposable | <input type="checkbox"/> Nozzles | <input type="checkbox"/> Soap |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Buckets | <input type="checkbox"/> Blankets | <input type="checkbox"/> Plastic Bags | <input type="checkbox"/> Sponges |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Decontamination Pools | <input type="checkbox"/> Ground Cover | <input type="checkbox"/> Red Barrier Tape | <input type="checkbox"/> Stools |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Decontamination Shower | <input type="checkbox"/> Hoses | <input type="checkbox"/> Small Hose Adapters | <input type="checkbox"/> Towels |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Modesty Protection | | <input type="checkbox"/> Traffic Cones |

5. How do you think Decon team members kept their composure (calm)?

Decontamination

Purpose: To prevent spread of contamination

When: Anytime contamination is suspected

What: People (victims and responders), equipment, etc

How: Emergency Decontamination as experienced today

6. Comment?
